When the artists from Frond Design Studios share their art techniques, paints, and brushes, wonderful things happen. Learning to unlock your explorative spirit can be one of the biggest roadblocks in your creative journey, and Stephanie is ready to help you find your creativity! You choose the design you want to embellish and choose what colors you would like to feature. Then you can either mount your project to the canvas provided and hang it on the wall or save it for use in a quilt or fiber art piece.
