

Start Your Planning Here!

Two or Three Months in Advance

- Check out the classes, lectures, and special events being offered and make note of what you're interested in! Then visit QuiltWeek.com to register.
- If you're not already an AQS Member, join to receive 20% off your registration.
- Receive extra discounts and skip the line at the show by buying Admission when you register.
- Visit QuiltWeek.com to book your hotel and make travel arrangements.

Right Before the Show

- Print your name badge (in your confirmation email when you register). This acts as your ticket to all classes, lectures, and special events, as well as your Show Admission if you purchased ahead of time. Put your name badge in a safe place and bring it to the show!
- Take a look at the vendors who will be attending and make your shopping list!
- Plan your days by checking out the free demonstrations at the AQS Learning Center.
- Have a quilt that you think might be worth something? Bring it to the show to have it appraised by an AQS Certified Quilt Appraiser.
- If you're concerned about walking to see the hundreds of quilts on display, reserve a scooter or wheelchair in advance.
- View the Show Book online to see maps and general show information before you leave home.

When You Arrive

- Pick up your free name badge holder and Show Book near the AQS Information Center.
- Use the Show Book maps to plan your route around the show; be sure to see all the wonderful Contest Quilts and Special Exhibit Quilts.
- Browse the world-renowned Merchant Mall for all your quilting needs!
- Sit and Sew a block or two for charity.
- Grab some lunch in the Convention Center.
- Visit the AQS Information Center to get tickets for lectures and events.
- Show off your wall quilt by attending the AQS Pop-Up Quilt Party!

Any questions? Contact AQS staff at register@americanquilter.com.