#57516 - Piecing

Wouldn't it be great to share some wonderful patchwork, beautiful colors, and wild and crazy friends? Karen will give you a better understanding of color and introduce you to her original method of foundation piecing. You will not only learn many things to help you with your piecing and color selections, but by the time you leave this class, Karen will have introduced you to some new, wild friends that never get the blues.
