

March 17, 2020

Dear Members, Friends, Vendors & Supporters,

It is with great sadness and heavy hearts The American Quilter's Society is cancelling the Paducah QuiltWeek Show scheduled for April 22-25, 2020, due to public health and safety concerns directly related to the COVID-19 virus outbreak.

The United States, the Commonwealth of Kentucky, McCracken County, and the City of Paducah have all declared states of emergency based upon the COVID-19 outbreak. The health and safety of our attendees, vendors, participants, and volunteers are of the utmost importance to us and we believe that this is the most prudent course of action at this time.

After working diligently with our governmental leaders, event partners and sponsors, we have reached an agreement to reschedule the 36th Annual Spring Paducah AQS QuiltWeek for September 2-5, 2020. The Paducah AQS QuiltWeek Show will still be held at The Julian Carroll Convention Center, Schroeder Expo Center, the Pavilion and the Finkel building. All reservations have been transferred to the new dates.

We ask for your continued patience and support during these difficult circumstances.

Meredith Schroeder, Founder
American Quilter's Society
